About you:

A skilful networker, your creativity and sense of communication combine with successful experience in a marketing position – ideally in B to B service company. Perseverant and convincing, you are fluent in the English and Czech languages and aim at developing in a multi-cultural environment. Attention to detail and quality form the bedrock of your client service. Teamwork is your byword.

Your mission:

To co-create and implement local marketing plans in close connection with local operational teams and in accordance with corporate strategy and plans. As marketing representative for the Central Europe business unit, to diffuse and promote the international marketing plans, projects and tools towards local teams. This consists of internal communication actions and, as knowledge transfer, of training and coaching support actions to local operational teams on marketing tools and practices.

Our offer:

An international mission and impact in a multi-cultural environment, enriching project assignments and personal coaching. A full time indefinite term position with a competitive remuneration.
